CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 18th September 2006

PC :

1. This application for bail has been rendered infructuous because the applicant, who had applied for bail before the Special Judge, NDPS Court, Pune, is already shown as an accused in the charge sheet which is filed with the Special Judge, NDPS Court, at Delhi. Shri Salvi appearing for respondent no.2 states that the applicant who is an accused there, had applied for discharge and the Special Judge, NDPS, Patiyala House Courts, New Delhi had by an order passed on the Discharge Application on 7th August 2006, discharged the applicant from the said case. Thus, the applicant is neither an accused before the Special Judge, Pune and the Special Judge, NDPS Court, New Delhi has already discharged him. Either which way, this application has become infructuous and is disposed of accordingly.
